

What is the Office of University Compliance & Integrity ?

The Office of University Compliance & Integrity is responsible for the design, implementation and maintenance of the institutional compliance program that promotes a culture of ethics and compliance within the University community.

Faculty, staff and students who work on behalf of Florida International University assume responsibility for conducting themselves within the law and in keeping with the ethical standards of the University, the Board of Governors and the State of Florida.

*Office of University Compliance &
Integrity Mission Statement*

The Office of University Compliance & Integrity maintains, fortifies, and continuously improves upon, the Florida International University Compliance and Ethics Program in support of the University's academic, research, and community service activities.

Why should I care?

Florida International University employees are strongly encouraged to ask questions and raise concerns.

Remember, by helping to identify problems early, you not only keep them from getting bigger, you also help advance FIU's vision as a leading urban public research university focused on student learning, innovation, and collaboration.

Remember:
"Compliance Starts with YOU!"

What should I do about a breach of privacy or confidentiality of information?

The University Compliance Officer is also the University Privacy Officer.

Questions concerning privacy matters should also be directed to the Office of University Compliance & Integrity.
